DEDICATION

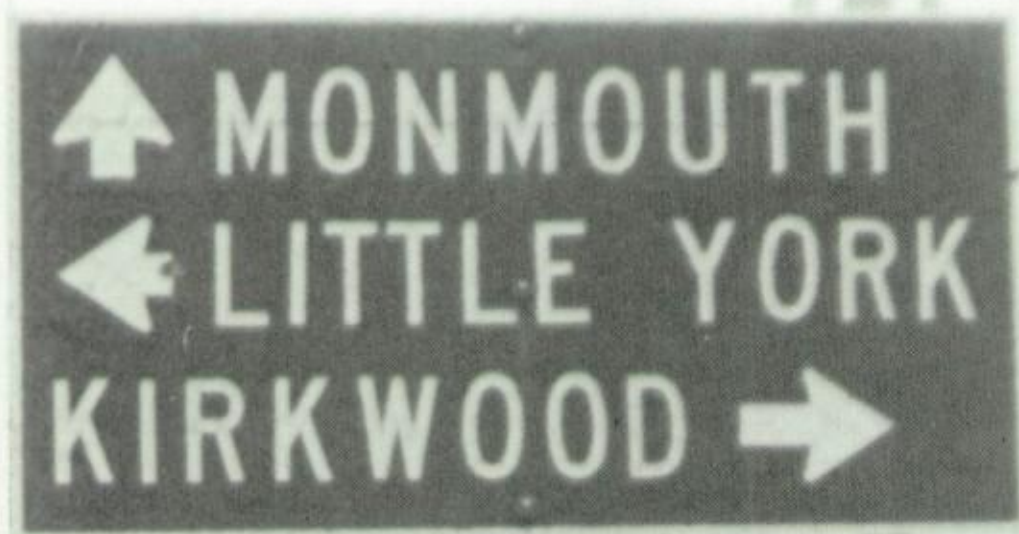

For the past twenty-one years, Frances Watson has been our librarian here at Yorkwood. Since 1961, she has helped the hundreds of students and many teachers who have come through Yorkwood, to better themselves and further their education with the resources in our library.

As well as the passage of time and people through our halls, Frances has seen the growth and changes of our school. She has added something to the spirit of our school that will always remain a part of it, despite what time or changes may do in the future. As with most schools, in its own quiet and stately way, the library is the very essence of what learning and knowledge represent. In her years with us, Frances has helped our library and our students to meet and benefit from each other.

For these many years of service, dedication and helpfulness to both students and teachers, we dedicate this book to her and wish her all the best as she retires.

With much thanks and gratitude,
The 1982 Bear Tracks Staff

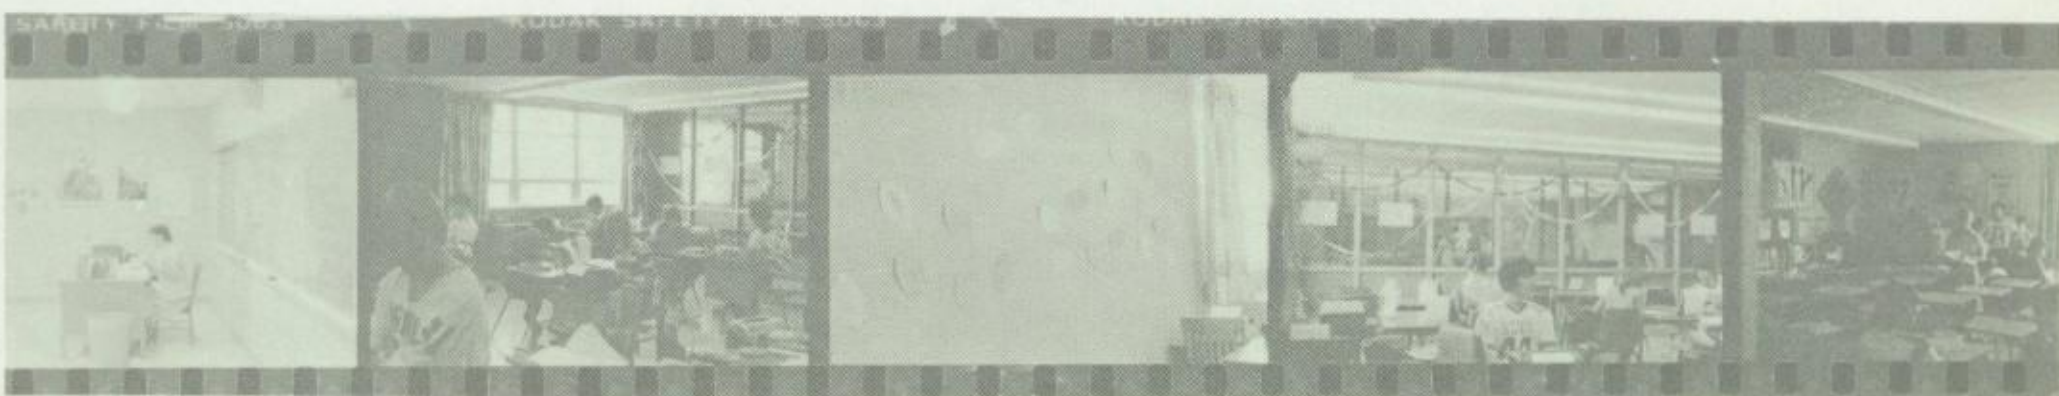

Where do we go from here? Think about it for a minute. Here we stand, a cross section of two towns, living and growing in small town America, witnessing the passage of the seasons in the changes of our landscape and the labors of farmers. Yorkwood Jr.-Sr. High School is a school; yet for all who pass through it, a stopping point, a time in one's life, a growing place, and a place where memories and friendships are founded.

In years to come, we will all go our own ways—some staying near home, some going to college, others to bigger cities. Marriage, jobs, families, and all the other major responsibilities of adulthood will come inevitably. We will all face them and do the best that we can.

Ironically, we have come to Yorkwood, like so many small streams converging into a great river, constantly undergoing change. Flowing together for a given period of time, we learn, we experience, and we grow, nurturing the memories and friendships that this time together brings. Finally we branch off again, graduating, going our own ways, meeting challenges, living life, forming our own stream. Always, we will remember what it was like to be a part of the river.

HOMECOMING 1981

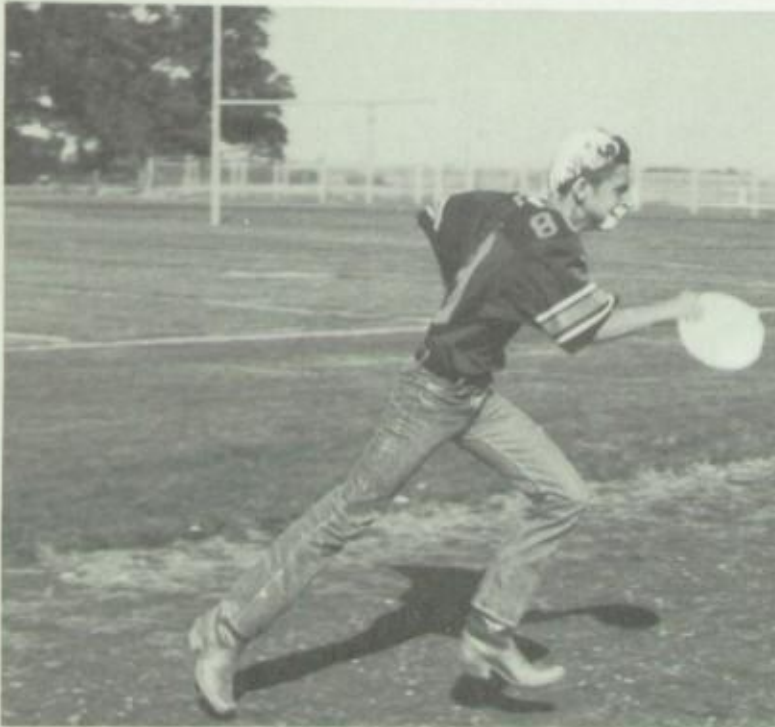

ROYALTY REIGNS

Homecoming is a time of great spirit, in which the student body backs their team all the way!! Teachers and students decorated rooms, cheerleaders had dress up days, the band prepared a spectacular half-time show, and the football team practiced for the big game. All went well as the cheerleaders fired up the pep rally crowd, awarded the best decorated room, and performed a skit about the "Bear" football team, and cheered everyone on! But, when game time comes there can only be one winner as the Panthers declawed the Bears. This year we rounded out festivities with a hayrack ride and weiner roast which filled all with good feelings of friendship; no matter what the outcome!

Bears Get Crowned

Homecoming . . . activities, decorations, attendants, the big game, and memories. It's a special time of your high school years. It's when a boy finally asks that special girl out—with the scary risk of being turned down.

It's the time you want everything to be perfect and your face breaks out. It's when you spend your last few dollars on a mum for your Mother. It's that special feeling that excitement, and the tension that everyone looks forward to from year to year.

If

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs, and blaming it on you,
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting, too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated, don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good nor talk too wise;
If you can dream and not make dreams your master,
If you can think, and not make thoughts your aim,
If you can meet with triumph and disaster,
And treat those two imposters just the same;
If you can bear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools;
If you can make a heap of all your winnings,
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings,
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the will which says to them: "Hold on!"
If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings—nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much:
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the earth and all that's in it,
And what is more you'll be a person.

—Rudyard Kipling

We Leave . . .

I, Steve Albert, being of woodworking mind and Burt Reynolds body give my long legs to Darryl Ricketts, so he can pass English as easily as I did. To Ron Ross I leave all my pieces of cardboard so he can hold up his race track. To Jim Rowley I leave a 10 year contract with the Review Atlas. To Mark Greenstreet, I leave my ability to lead the football team. And finally to Kris Johnson, all my love.

I, Mark (Marvelous Marvis) Bertelsen, being of who cares mind and the same body, leave to Mr. Schar, our wonderful principal, Yorkwood's own token bufa to lighten up the front lawn. I would also like to leave him all my vocabulary in hopes that he finds someone else to give detentions for the amount of letters in each word. To Brenda Walters I leave someone to sit with her at lunch and enjoy spending lunch hour in the cafeteria. To Mrs. Baker "40, 40, 40", the memories and fun times in our class; because "in the Lord's Eyes" we know she'll never have another like us. To Mr. Pearson, I leave 1 foster child that he will be receiving through the mail. And last, to the entire student body of Yorkwood I leave all that they have given me . . . NOTHING!!

I, Vicki Boock, being of nonassertive mind and body, will the following: To Alice Hawk, a personally guided tour of W.I.U., a ball point pen (with nothing attached!!), and also a song and dance studio (since we all know she'll turn professional). To Brenda Walters, her very own dog and her original last name, also a photo album containing 8 x 10 glossies of all her "sisters." To Sherri Swenson and Melinda Stoutt, last hour P.E. to practice their flip-flops. To Christa Seaton, my old locker so she can have one by Lori. And to the rest — Have Fun!!!!

I, Delbert Breuer, being of good looks, strong body, and weak mind leave Coach Graves the million dollar licorice business. To Jamie Gaskill my strong body to do anything he wants to do. Good luck!

I, Tammy Clayton, being of domestic mind and sound body will to Kris Johnson and Brenda Walters the ability to go to town before a game and be able to come back in one piece. To Coach Carney a pair of combat boots. And to the girls of YHS a smoke alarm for the girls' restroom.

I, David Coburn, being of sound mind and sloppy body will to the following: to Kris Johnson 1st chair in band in hopes she won't get too many dirty looks from clarinet and flute players. To Danny "worm" Speer a set of tire chains in hopes he won't get stuck while taking my sister home. And to Todd Moburg my speed shifting ability.

I, Tammy Connour, being of not so great mind and likewise body do hereby will to Traci Anderson someone to help her out with any classes she may have trouble with. To Colleen Gillen I leave the ability to look so wonderful the morning after. To H.T. Kinney I leave the ability to say "excuse me" (right, World History class?). To Karen Earp and Michelle Nichols, I say thanks for the helpful talks. To Lisa Johnson and Linda Harlow, the ability to walk bright-eyed into those early morning practices after those interesting evenings. To Mrs. Baker, I leave her the hope that she can find someone to fill her in on all the "hot" gossip. To Mr. James, I leave the words "shut up", a new liver, and the hope he can find someone else to pick on. To Ray Cavanaugh, I leave the ability to go to the restroom by himself. I leave with Sherry Feehan and our friendship and a thanks for always being there, and all the luck and happiness with Cliff. And to the junior class, a fun-filled Senior year.

I, Mark Damewood, being of strong mind and sound body will to Bill Dutton the ability to respect other people's property and to watch the road when drag racing in case a dog mysteriously runs out in front of him. And to Chumley Dutton, the ability to escape the munchies.

I, Brian "Brow" Davies, being of statistical mind and awesome body will to Kelly Worthington the ability to look at an "older" man without big brother getting upset, and the ability to date at 15; to Brenda Walters and John "The Mean Keen" Keener a Doc's Football Pick Book, and also to John the ability to pick some winners and to never forget the phrase, "Huh, Interesting"; to Tony Bizarri some defensive talent and a coat just like mine; to Alice "Lou" Hawk all the best with Gary; to Angie "Airhead" Davies one Friday night pizza party for two, any secret places where she can become dizzy, all the luck in cheerleading and a great senior year; to Terry Bellinger, someone to curse at in the halls; to Mr. Schar a black and silver Oakland Raiders sweatshirt; to Mr. James a half-way decent basketball team to go for because Fresno State University didn't do too well this year; to Mr. Graves, two statisticians who are as efficient as we were — right Raymond? to Mrs. "40" Baker, Mrs. "Wan" Michael and the rest of Yorkwood High the ability to find another group of Seniors who were as dedicated as we were, although I know you never will; and a special thanks to Mrs. Baker for making my high school years so fun and memorable; to the cafeteria, I will some heat; to next year's senior class the ability to graduate in their own class colors no matter what professional football team they look like; and to the class of '83 the ability to cope with the realization that when they become seniors they will still be second to the class of '84 — just like the class of '82 was this year; to Jim Rowley the phrase "Here's mud in your eye"; and to the rest of YHS the ability to have good clean fun.

I, Jerry Dutton, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave to cousin Bill my extraordinary football talents in hope that he can put them to better use than I did, and I also leave him a gift certificate to Holiday's to purchase his beverages on weekends.

I, Kim Edwin, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath to the following: To Lisa Johnson the ability to take care of her tuna boat just like I had to. To "Ronald" Ross I leave a long yellow dress that is low in the front, low in the back, with high slits on the sides so he can go out on the town and eat all the peaches that he could ever want. To Colleen and Linda I leave a map of the countryside west of Yorkwood so they won't end up near Oquawka and using a whole tank of gas just to go about 5 miles. To Angie and Melinda I leave a wish for a lot of luck next year in cheerleading. Make the most of it — no matter what, because it CAN be fun. P.S. Angie make sure you get the right posters in the right cars! To Shelly I leave the hope that she makes the most of her remaining years at YHS — And if things should seem like they're going wrong at times I hope she will be able to believe in herself enough to see things through no matter what others think. To Mr. Johnson I leave a very special thank you — just for listening.

I, Sherry Feehan, being of extraordinary mind and supernatural body, will to Mr. Schar a black and silver tie and an Oakland Raiders tie clasp to hold it in place; to Raymond Cavanaugh two great football statisticians to keep tackles for him, so he can be the leading tackler next year; to Russell Feehan and Gary VanWinkle, my ability to remain in school for one whole year; to Mike Olson I leave my hope that he will not follow in his sister's footsteps. To Jay Melton I leave his sister Donna's borrowed maternity clothes. To Mrs. Baker I leave the advanced math class. To John "The Mean Keen" Keener someone else to give him advice on his love life; to Colleen Gillen I leave her own personal hair dresser, in case she has someone to impress. To the students I leave the ability to find one great friend like the one I have in Tammy Connour.

I, Denise Renee Gulick, being of very spacey mind and call it what you want body, do hereby state my final will and testament: to the administration, faculty, parents, and students of YHS, I leave two sides to every story. To Lisa Johnson a new truck so we will never get stranded on North Main Street. To all cheerleaders, I leave my new book, titled 101 ways to do a seat jump. To Lori Elliott, I leave my ability to stick up for yourself. Best of luck next year Lori and may you always find happiness. And finally to my sister Donna I leave all our crazy childhood memories, talks, and a very special friendship and hopes that we will always be as close as we always have been. Always remember to hang in there Porker and I love ya lots!

Gladly!!!

I, Brian Joseph Hall, being of David Berkowitz mind and body brimming with animal magnetism do hereby will to Jay Melton a good throwing arm for noon, and one inflatable "Love Doll" so he'll have a date for next year's prom. To John Keener and Mike Deisher, two pairs of camouflage suits to wear on maneuvers, and two permanent chairs "in my office". And to Jackie "Sprat" Rowley my ability to wreak havoc on all study hall supervisors.

I, Sue Hallstron, will Colleen Gillen the ability to greet someone else the way she has done me all year. I leave Linda Harlow the ability to keep the back seats of her car dry while she drives around the block. I will Lisa Johnson a year's supply of gas to drive Colleen and Linda around the block before practice. To Lisa, Linda, and Colleen I will the ability to keep our tradition of eating at Steep's Station before each basketball game. Most of all to these three a big thanks for a great friendship!

I, John Hardesty, being of sound mind and long body do hereby will my perch at the camera to Robert Anderson in hopes that he learns to run it. And to Rod Hale my parking spot at school. To Todd Damewood a bottle of vitamins to grow taller. And last to Jerry Icenogle my ability to maintain at 55 m.p.h. or less.

I, John Hart, being of corroded mind and muscular body hereby will to David "Thumper" Brownlee the ability to run the school his senior year as I never did. And to Johnny "Goose" West the ability to get teased about his nickname.

I, Bert Hinton, being of semi-sound mind and love-handles body do hereby will the following: Bill Robinson my trombone and vaseline for all his tight spots; to Jim "72" Rowley the ability to speed successfully; to all underclassmen much luck and success at YHS; and last but not least to Melody all my love and happiness!

I, Marty Johnson, being of sound mind and sound body do hereby will to Jamie Gaskill the ability to hold a camera still while taking pictures so he won't waste so much film next year on the yearbook staff; to Raymond "Rub" Cavanaugh the ability to pick out girls without ex-boyfriends; to John Keener the ability to stay on his feet while running football patterns during track practice; and to Jackie Rowley the ability to get along without Brian and me during her study halls next year.

I, Tracey Kinney, leave to Stacy Addleman and Lisa Coburn all of the fun there can possibly be in band. To Alice Hawk all my speech abilities and to be able to get up at 4:00 a.m. on Saturday mornings. To Jackie Rowley, several trips Spooky House cruising. To Brenda Walters "the lingo" in hopes that it won't die after we leave. To Mrs. Baker a thank you for making my high school experience enjoyable. And least of all to Mr. Schar a bouquet of silk black and silver roses, so that he can always remember our true class colors.

I, Missi LaFever, being of perfection, do hereby will and bequeath my perfect abilities to Kris Johnson; and to Shelly Edwin, the ability to find a ride home after school, and the best of luck with G.G. and the remainder of her high school years. Mr. James, the ability to keep the neighborhood in good moral standing, and all the luck in finding another neighbor as nice as myself. And to that fearless leader, a box of JELLO for those nights of shivaree. Mr. Pearson, the ability to think of new creations for his BAGELS, and a pan of tarts. Also, best wishes in finding a new teaching job. Todd Moburg, all my sympathy on the burning of his house, and a box of "SUNNY BEACHES." To Colleen, I will all of the notebooks to fill up with the memories of K.H. and T.C.

I, Rod Link, being of superior mind and inferior body will to Rod Hale all of my art know-how and great talent; and to the class of '84 I leave nothing because they already have it all.

I, Dian McClure, being of sound mind and body hereby will the Junior Class the ability to get through their Senior year without any problems.

I, Gene McGeehon, being of no mind and semi-sound body will to Terry "Grease Monkey" Bellinger a lifetime supply of heavy duty grease, 50 pounds of "super bubble" bubble gum, and 1,000 pounds of bailing wire—this will insure your car will run at least three more months. To Joel B. Horner, I will my good Ag abilities and my "H" cutting torch. To my brother Chuck I will all the good grades I didn't get.

I, Laurie Miner, being of sound body and no mind will to April Hathaway the ability to cope with food service class and to Johnny West and David Brownlee all of our mischief.

I, Doug Missavage, being of sound mind and original body will to all the people in my Algebra II class the power to resist trouble-makers and do their assignments. To Colleen Gillen a large can of Barbasol. To Phil Brooks—pity—because that's what he gets for taking two math classes. To Kendall Kelley, a blank piece of paper. To Angie Davies, a trailer of her own. To Raymond Cavanaugh the ability to bench 280 pounds ten times. And last but not least, to the class of '84, I leave Yorkwood High School, because everyone knows it's theirs anyway.

I, Suzan Munson, being of dirty mind and . . . and . . . "you can't describe in words" type body, do hereby write my last will and testament: 1st, I will to Jackie Rowley a life time supply of Puffs, so she no longer has to make 37 trips a day to the "ladies room." 2nd, to Ruth "Can I have a piece of gum?" Stauffer, one giant, jumbo, economy, guaranteed to last a full school year pack of gum. Now she doesn't have to ask Kathleen. 3rd to the Funk "Dig my head band and sign my jeans" Punkers, one 1971 Chevy pick up. It has a green body, complete with rust, orange topper, and purple interior. Now you all can go to Monmouth and fill out job applications. 4th to F.M.C.A. (Future Mini Coursers of America) I will my seat at the gripe sessions—you'll enjoy those. And one package of green kool-aid, cheerios, party mix and a genuine Irish Rovers record in hopes you can get a bigger kick out of it. 5th, last but not least, I will to Tracey Hume, my nerve, patience, cool-headedness, and ability to stay calm and not to throw fits in Art II. She is going to need it. And a special thanks to her in my "time o' need." To everyone else I only leave hope—things have got to get better!

I, Melissa Olson, being of questionable mind and we won't discuss the body do hereby will the following: to Jackie Rowley a port-a-potty so she won't be late for a performance; to Brenda Walters my wooden shoes that she likes so well so she can trip down the halls; to Alice Hawk the best of luck to her and Gary—may their joys multiply; to Sherri Swenson the hope that she will not have the "small" problems in PomPon that I did—and also my position as "Chinese" captain. To Raymond Cavanaugh a solar efficient home so he will always remember Physics class and all (?) we learned. To Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Michael all my Melissa-isms in hopes that they'll find someone new to laugh at and also a big thanks to both of them for making my senior year enjoyable. To the underclassmen lots of luck in their remaining years at Yorkwood. And finally, to Beverly Sproutt one winning raffle ticket.

I, Monita Davies, being of clean mind and innocent body will to Greg Presswood, Gary Van Winkle, Russ Feehan, and Mike McNitt all of my extra earrings and my ability to get along with high school principals. Also to my brother Greg I leave my love because he's been the best friend a sister could have and I know he's going to miss me when I'm gone. To Mr. James, the phrase "Guess what I did this weekend" in hopes he can find someone to tell him stories as good as I did. And last but not least to Mrs. Baker and Miss Cook "thanks" for making my high school years something to remember.

I, Doug Raes, being of sound mind and muscular body leave to Mike Damewood soap on a rope so that he won't drop it in the shower. To Ron "Roscoe" Ross someone else to help get peaches at concession stands, and to next year's senior class, all the luck at YHS.

I, Kathi Robinson, being of sound mind and short body do hereby will the following: to Mr. Schar a ticket to an Oakland Raiders football game so he can enjoy looking at his two favorite colors; to Mrs. Baker — '40" — a special thanks for making our high school days more fun and memorable. And finally to the underclassmen — the ability to choose class colors that will suit all faculty's tastes.

I, Sarah Rothzen, being of sound mind and uncoordinated body leave my last will and testament: To Todd Moburg a trip to Jamieson Center so he can add to his tasteful wardrobe; to Sherri Swenson and Raymond Cavanaugh all of my Physics ability; to Alice Hawk the ability to enter on her cues, and may her undying devotion to Gary be eternal; to Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Michael future classes as enjoyable as ours were; to the school I leave 20 gallons of black and silver paint "class colors", and to the underclassmen, best of luck in the long road ahead.

I, Gloria Jean Clayton, being of basketball body and skinny mind do hereby will to Lisa Johnson a pair of front speakers for a Cutlass Supreme. To Colleen Gillen a pair of two-sided jeans so you can't tell if they are wrong-side out. To Linda Harlow a dry back seat for the little yellow honeybee. To Traci Anderson to know the meaning of all sayings going to a boys' Roseville basketball game. To Bill Dutton the ability to find someone to ask "How's your old man?" To Greeny a daily lip check in Mr. Graves's 4th hour study hall. To Mrs. Baker someone to go to the bathroom everyday during homeroom. To Mr. James I reserve T.J. Swann for his first stationwagon. And to the Junior class all the luck in the world.

I, Tom Toops, being of one-track mind and very sexy body do hereby will the following: To Jim Rowley a ten year no-clause contract with Sports Editor Phil Brozynski. To Linda Harlow somebody else's business for her to stick her nose into. To Marie Averill I leave a Rules of the Road Book and a sign that says "Caution Narrow Bridge". To Jay OLY Melton and Mike DEISHBAG Deisher, I leave my abilities to elude Mr. Schar and Mr. Johnson at noon. Also to OLY I will my faithful hiding place where I hide from these two fiendish devils. And to the rest of the school I leave nothing — because it gave me nothing.

I, Tomas Westergren, of lost mind and body, will Keener my ability to get a kick out of football. To Beedle, Speer, and Link I will my ability to restrain myself from climbing walls. To Colleen, I will my liver. And to Yorkwood High School I will my immortal spirit.

I, Paul Wilson, being of holy body and John Lonergan mind leave to Greg Raes all the recording power in the school. To Jay Melton the ability to work over people with his leg riding. To Kris Johnson the hopes to find somebody else to go to with her problems.

Steve Albert has finally put his influence and power to work, as he is employed by the Illinois State Police Force. Prom night parties really have to watch out for Officer Albert.

Blue-haired boy Mark Bertelsen has gone into the hair styling business. In Mark's evening hours he brightens local lawns by decorating them with little black jockeys.

Vicki Boock is running "Aunt Vicki's Boarding House" for homeless Bassett hounds. Fred II is the male orderly, and Mike has the unfortunate position of janitor. Her little daughter named "Alberta" was taught to swim by a p-p-pumped lady in Puget Sound.

Delbert Breuer is running a licorice business, and as a hobby he is still trying to invent a two-wheel drive truck that will conquer cement mountains.

Mighty Bob Brownlee is running "Tick-aTalk Up" investigation agency that specializes in finding lost persons, especially those who are lost in Warren County cornfields. Isn't that right Mr. Hayboon?

Don Bulen has inherited the Hardees business and is keeping up the Yorkwood hangout.

Cyndi "Spot" Campbell now has 3 sets of twins. In her spare time she operates a service station so she'll always have a supply of diesel fuel for those cold winter nights.

Tammy Clayton, now "Mrs. Buckwheat," has fulfilled her life-long dream of working as a field hand.

David Coburn is an officer in charge of juvenile delinquents, especially those who speed, disobey curfew laws, and "borrow" their parents' cars. Unfortunately, he still hasn't broken his habit of climbing out of upstairs windows and bicycling to town in the dark.

Tammy Connour has invented a new lotion that prevents chigger bites, especially for those times when she and John are lost in the cornfield.

Mark Damewood's on-again, off-again relationship with Karen finally resulted in marriage since he gave up his trips to Aledo. Unfortunately, Karen sits at home quite often because after Mark's poor habits have been paid for, their budget is depleted.

Monita Davies has become the new Laura on the soap General Hospital because she always wanted to be a blonde. Monita, we would like to know, "Is it true, blondes have more fun?"

Brian Davies has invented a new way of unlocking car doors in the rain. Brian is working with his favorite sport's editor Phil Brozynski whom he has always admired for his equitable reporting.

Jerry Dutton is still revising his famous book one hundred how "to"? While being manager of Triumph, the last nine years, he has been passing his spare time by kicking back and quietly pursuing his dreams, and munching on a life-time supply of turkey sandwiches.

Kim Edwin returned to Yorkwood as a cheerleading sponsor.

Sheery Feehan, the milk maid, is running a dairy farm in Wisconsin with her husband Cliff. Their child named "Mongy" spoke her first words the other day. "I-uh-mag-un."

Janet Oogababe Foreman is a part owner and lives in back of Melings. 10 years after graduation, Janet is still singing the song "Broken Arms."

Bobbi Gerald has chosen Jeff Miller to be at her side at all times to tell her where she's at, but at times Jeff has real problems convincing her the room isn't spinning around.

Denise Gulick is a future farmer's wife of America, and has written a book titled, Bernice's 101 ways to do a seat jump. She will be appearing on That's Incredible to demonstrate those 101 ways.

Brian Hall has opened a new clothing store named the "Stud" which features sloppy clothes for the "Macho" man. Brian's also specialized in the recognition of car headlights.

Sue Hallstrom owns and operates her own gas station at which she serves fast food so hungry basketball players can eat supper and still get to the games on time.

John Hardesty has the job of basketball manager for the Boston Celtics, but is still second string to Robert Anderson.

John "Scrawny" Hart is a Ford Mustang salesman. He has designed a new Mustang for American Motors, that jumps fences instead of plowing through them.

Bert Hington, who has taken a vow of silence after rooming with Mark Bertelsen their first year of college, is now portraying a big Texan with one cow named Lucy advertising the before and after affects of Preparation H.

Marty Johnson has become a famous lawyer. He is well-known for his ability to argue for his famous line "I rest my case."

Tracey Kinney has become a cruising lady cop working the night shift making sure that second story window shades are pulled. In her spare daytime hours she is employed as a salesperson at a fashion store specializing in "white wagon pants".

Missi Lafever has a fascination with meat and runs around yelling, "Liver, more, Liver!"

Alan "Dipstick" Leary is keeping a close eye on cousins and friends to help counsel their lives. Thanks Al!

Rod Link is a comic strip.

Dian McClure now has her own auto shop where she is well-known for her ability to align tires by computer processing.

Gene McGeehon is a Granola Bar salesman for local school districts.

Laurie Miner and "Renegade Owl" are happily married, and Laurie is a Magic Chef at Corner's Cuisine, a restaurant renowned for it delicious salads.

Doug Missavage is the owner of a laundry business specializing in shirts with chewed-up food on them. He is also taking part-time classes at Carl Sandburg on how to smoke a cigarette.

Disco Sue Munson is a narcotics agent for Warren County. On the weekends she is a professional harness driver at the Quad City Downs.

Melissa Olson who is not Chinese will have a job setting up sledding parties. Melissa has fallen in love and married John Sprout.

Arlatha Queen has a position as assistant principal at YHS; her special duties are sending students to the office and checking the girls' restroom for between-class-smokers.

Doug Raes, who feels like a lampshade, has no future.

Kathi Robinson is training drivers on how to avoid mail boxes and how to shift 4-speed vehicles. When training is completed, they are even able to shift in their sleep.

Sarah Rothzen is head mistress of a school specializing in pronunciation and diction. Graduation is granted when a student can pronounce Wilma Wheetley 5 times in succession. At the same time she is taking night classes to get a Phd in Physics.

Doug Seaton is a Tic-Tac-Toe Champion. He credits his success to playing Bob Brownlee in P.E. Class.

Gloria Clayton is a happy housewife. In her spare time she stars in Taboo II.

Tom Toops, working in conjunction with Howard Cosell and Rona Barrett, keeps Warren County informed of all the latest gossip.

David West is an active politician for a Senate seat. His platform includes no age limit on drinking and the legalization of marijuana for medical purposes only.

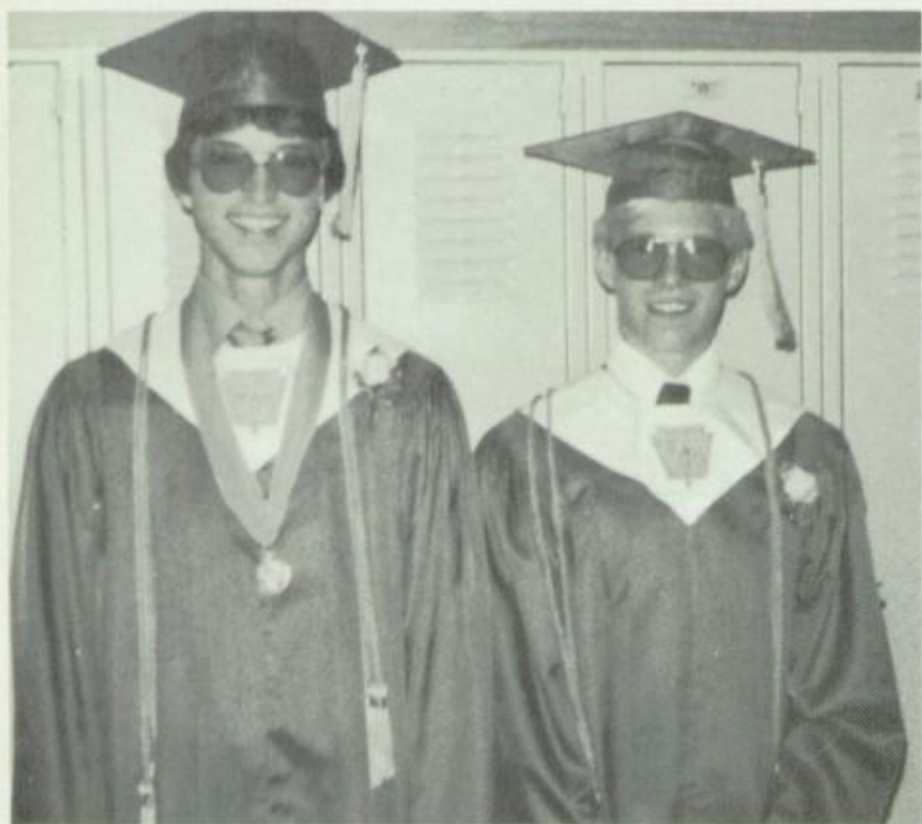

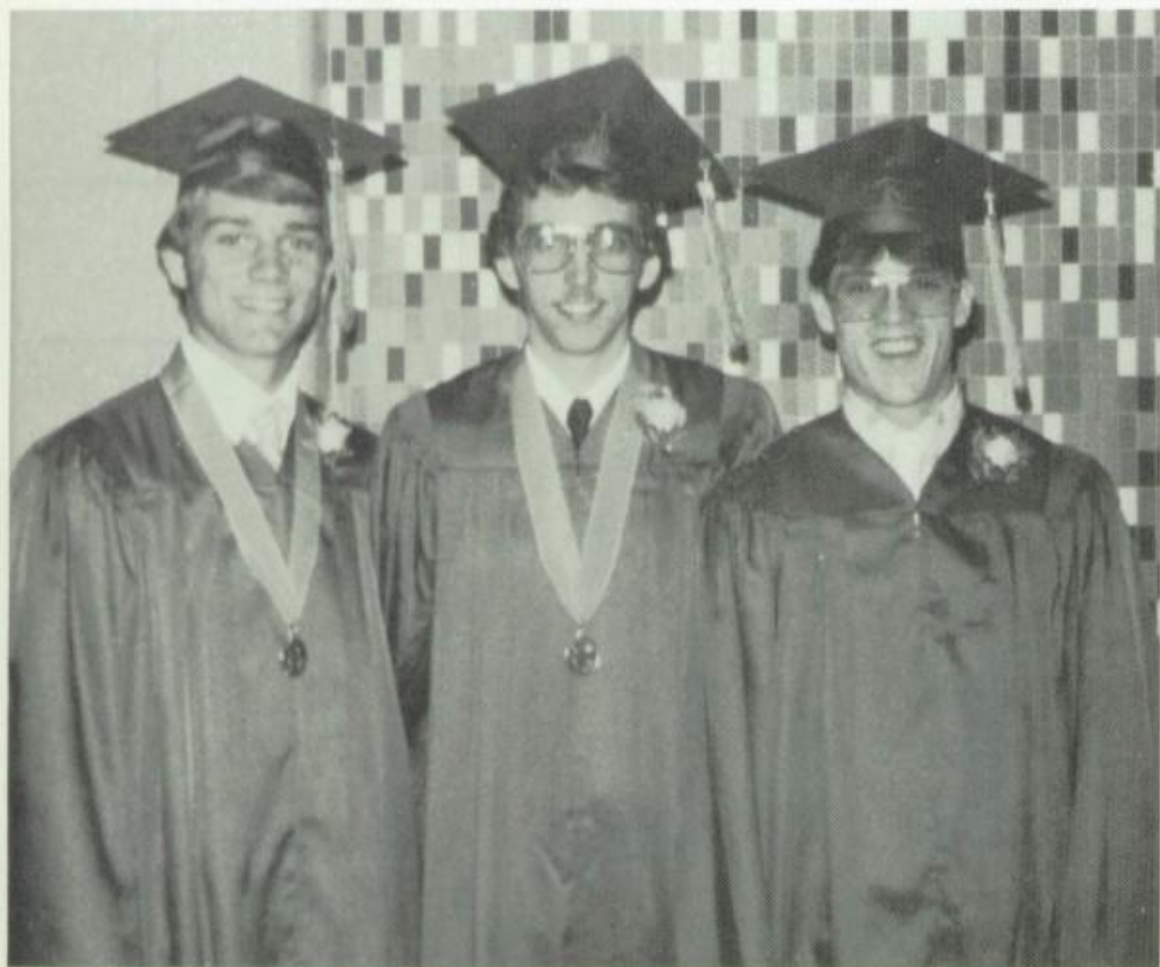

Tomas Westergren has not decided whether to be an international chef because he thinks he knows how to judge good food, or to become a mountain climber because he has already proven his ability to climb.

Paul Wilson patented a formula for Instant weight-on and has finally developed into the muscular wrestler he always wanted to be.

Pat Woerly has become Mr. Universe of 1992. He attributes all of his strength to cement block lifting for Woerly Construction.

The senior class of 1982 looks like it will have a very bright future. They are a very determined group that will set their goals high, then work hard to achieve them. They will have a lot to overcome in the coming years, but they are strong and won't be crushed in the crowd. Even through all the pitfalls of life, they will survive, because they are the future leaders of this world. At this time in their lives they may feel they are unimportant or that they won't survive all of the turmoil in the world now and in the future. But, when they are older and look back on all the good times they had while they were here, they will be happy that they were here at this time in their lives.

Graduation Makes Everyone Smile

The Long Road Comes to an End

Doug & Laurie process in.

Sarah, Kathi, & Tracey take time before the ceremony for this picture.

Last minute preparations before the big event.

Steve Grave's '81 Bears had a tremendous season! The Bears gave the fans something to cheer about, especially since they were felt to be strong play-off contenders. Football fever was high as they were rated eighth, then sixth in the state in consecutive weeks, before being knocked off. Though determined to make a fine finish, they defeated the number ten rated Southern Rebels in the highlight game of the year. Senior Parent's night was disappointing, yet exciting, as they played to their potential before a very large crowd of Union Yankee and Bear fans. This game meant the Bi-County title and a trip to the play-offs, but the Bears came up short. We would like to extend our congratulations to the Bear players and coaches for a fine 7-2 season, which everyone can be proud of! Good luck next year in another fine team effort!!!

THANKS SENIORS!!!

On these three pages, we've tried to capture some of the faces, fads, and headlines that made the news in 1981 & '82. These are the events that colored the world we live in, each in some way marking it's place in time, and having an influence, both near home and far away. To each of us, the news is a daily occurrence, that we see and hear at 6 & 10. As time goes by we often forget faces and stories that had an impact during a very special time in our life - high school. With these pages, we hope to enable you to turn back the clock, to see what happened, to recall the past, to remember 1981 and 82. The year that was. Do you remember . . . ?

The Year that WAS

Reward set for deputy's killer

MONMOUTH, Ill. (UPI) — George Darnell made friends wherever he went, whether it was escorting a sick child to the hospital with sirens and flashing lights or plowing snow for his neighbors.

Darnell, who would have been 61 Dec. 16, was shot to death while investigating a tanker truck parked at the Stock Land FS fuel storage area Dec. 7.

A black and white photograph of a golf course. A dirt path leads from the foreground into the distance, flanked by grass and trees. The path is dappled with sunlight and shadows. Large trees are on the left, and a line of trees is on the right. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.

Keep the moments
As best you can
Remember the faces, the fun,
The tears
Keep a warm ember
Alive in your heart
To fan alive in future
Years
Care now, for your
Caring will remain
For eternity.
